Richard Chapman newspaper clipping

Chula Vista Star-News, March 29, 1979, p. 38. Source image: IMG_2387.jpeg.

Residential address and unrelated family details redacted; unrelated clipping material omitted.

Hiking mishap kills Chapman

Richard Wayne Chapman, 26, of Imperial Beach, was killed Saturday when he fell while hiking in the Rincon Mountains 15 miles east of Tucson.

Graveside services will be today at 1 p.m. in Glen Abbey Memorial Park with Pinkham-Mitchell Imperial Beach Mortuary directing.

Chapman, of [redacted] was born in Corpus Christi, Texas. He attended Imperial Beach schools and had recently returned from working as a roustabout and rigger in Morgan, La., oil fields. He went to Tucson with friends two weeks ago.

Surviving are his wife, Kim; a son, Randy; [redacted]

Privacy edited source excerpt